

County News

MALTA BEND.

Mr. F. C. Blackburn was transacting business in Marshall last Wednesday.

Miss Anna Bell Coleman returned to Malta Bend last Wednesday after visiting homefolks at Marshall.

Mr. Ernest Saylor was transacting business in Marshall last Wednesday.

Mrs. R. C. Potter returned home from Slater last Thursday after spending a week with her sister, who was sick.

Mr. Wessendorf was transacting business in Marshall last Thursday.

Mr. John Morton and father-in-law were transacting business in Marshall last Wednesday.

Mrs. Offa Walker was shopping in Marshall last Wednesday.

Mrs. E. G. Guthrie and Miss Mettie Frazee went to Slater last Tuesday and were the guests of relatives and friends. They attended the Rebekah lodge there Tuesday night. Mrs. Guthrie installed the officers for the year. They returned home Wednesday evening.

Mr. Sherman Cliff was transacting business in Marshall last Monday.

Mr. J. J. Wheelon came down from Wellington Monday morning to look after his business here.

Mrs. C. O. Walker entertained her sister from Sweet Springs last Sunday.

Miss Florence Baker was shopping in Marshall last Saturday.

Mrs. Clara Blosser was transacting business in Marshall, Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Long of near Grand Pass visited her mother, Mrs. Cora Nelson and family several days last week.

Messrs Ralph and Clyde Denning were transacting business in Kansas City last week.

Mrs. Riley of Waverly was the guest of Mr. John Ross and family last Sunday.

Miss Edith Levey was shopping in Marshall last Friday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Tobin, February 13th a boy.

Mrs. Malter returned to her home near Lexington, Sunday evening after visiting her children here.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Tobin entertained at dinner Sunday the following guests, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Yancy, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Yancey, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Allen and son and Miss Sallie Kelley.

Prof. Hastings spent Saturday and Sunday with homefolks at Slater.

NORTON

A few of the men from this vicinity attended the Spencer sale southeast of Orearville, Tuesday.

Messrs Thomas Nugen and C. H. Hickman, started for Hot Springs Wednesday.

Our neighborhood was represented at the Thomas sale near Orearville, Wednesday.

Dr. C. E. Piper of Slater was called to see William Barnes Pemberton, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Messrs J. S. Wilson and Holmes Dawes attended a Masonic meeting at Marshall Monday night.

Mr. McCoy shipped a car-load of hay from Norton last week.

Mr. Malcolm Barnhill was a guest of Mr. J. S. Wilson, Tuesday night.

Mr. Otis Pemberton went to Nelson Wednesday to visit his uncle, Dr. H. T. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Irvin of Marshall were guests of Mr. Jack Hawkins and wife, Thursday.

Rev. Wilson and wife of Slater and Mrs. Adam Sheer, were guests of Mr. V. B. Swisher and family Thursday.

Miss John Wall was shopping in Marshall Thursday.

Miss Annie Igo of Napton is visiting Miss Maud Tabler.

Rev. Baker of Marshall filled his regular appointment at the Norton church last Sunday, both morning and evening.

Henry Wall, who left here a few weeks ago for southern Missouri, has located near Willow Springs.

Dr. C. E. Piper of Slater was called to see Mrs. W. B. Pemberton Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Pemberton were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Hennas of Marshall, Saturday evening.

Miss Alverta Clough of Marshall was the guest of Miss Mary Hedgen from Friday till Monday.

Mrs. J. S. Wilson and Miss Mollie Wilson were in Marshall Saturday.

Messrs Lewis and Eugene Hickman were in Marshall Saturday.

Mr. J. S. Wilson was in Marshall from Thursday till Saturday.

Miss Dee Garrett visited her brother, Harry Garrett and family Friday and Saturday.

Miss Maud Tabler entertained her young friends at a party Friday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Tabler, near Norton.

CAMP CREEK

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Piper returned to their home in Slater Saturday after a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Venable, daughter, Helen, Mr. and Mrs. R. Gaines Robertson, were the guest to Mr. and Mrs. I. Garrett, Sunday.

Mrs. L. L. Lowery and sister-in-law, Miss Mae Lowery, were shopping in Marshall Wednesday.

J. E. Brown was a Marshall caller Saturday.

Mr. Claude Thomas and sister, Miss Nora attended Valentine party, Friday evening, given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brown.

Miss Marie Piper is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. James E. Brown at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Woodsmall and little son, Robert, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Harvey of Napton was on the creek Sunday afternoon.

Frank Piper spent Thursday night with Arnold Brown.

Messrs Charlie and Henry Bailey, worshipped at Little Rock Sunday morning.

Miss Mary Piper was the guest of Miss Mary Odell, Saturday night.

Mr. Charlie Brown spent a few days with Arnold Brown Tuesday afternoon.

Am Cott was transacting business in Marshall Saturday.

Mr. Charles Rieder and Miss Mae Lowery left Friday afternoon on the 4:15 for Mt. Leonard to attend a St. Valentine's party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sayers. They were accompanied as far as Marshall by Mrs. C. A. Lowery and Miss Vivien Garrett.

Mr. Ivan McCarty of Marshall was the guest of Mr. Arnold Brown Sunday.

Mr. George Pierson, Jr., passed through our berg Sunday enroute to Marshall.

CONCORD RIDGE.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Craig and daughter Dorothy arrived from Texas last Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Geisler, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Thornton, Flein Thornton and Annie Kruger had a good time at Henry Aselmeyer's Monday.

Jack Dysart went to Marshall Tuesday, taking up a load of furniture for Mrs. Jennie Dickson.

Ollie Piper and sisters, Misses Lula and Ola, were among those who went to the social meeting at the Misses Herring's Thursday night.

Miss Nora Heumans, one of our popular young ladies, and Mr. Gus Janneke, were married Thursday.

Alfred Aselmeyer entertained a few of his friends Saturday night.

Dr. Lawless and Dr. Bradshaw were out to see Mr. Wiley Sunday morning.

Jack Dysart went to Shackelford Wednesday and came back Thursday. He moved a load of chickens for Will Spencer, who has moved to a place close to Bera.

Dr. Bradshaw met with a painful accident Tuesday night while on his way to see Mr. Wiley, who is very sick. The doctor's horse threw him breaking one arm and injuring one eye. He managed to get as far as Jack Dysart's. Mr. Dysart took him to Steve Craig's and telephoned to Dr. Lawless. The doctors went on to Marshall and had Dr. Bradshaw's arm set. We are glad to say he is again able to attend to his patients, with some one else to do the driving.

The Sunday school social club had a meeting at the home of Misses Herring's Thursday night, February 13.

Roy Polindexter of Sweet Springs, who visited here Christmas with his aunt, Mrs. Jim Wood, has recently moved to Sedalia with his parents.

Mrs. Jennie Dickson and children moved to Marshall last week. They will be missed by every one in this community. They have our best wishes for success in their new home. Webster M. White is in Kansas City on business.

PASS BRANCH

Mrs. J. W. Spencer was the guest several days last week with relatives in Kansas City.

Mr. J. M. Wright of Kansas City was the guest from Friday until Sunday at the home of Henry Briggs and family.

Charlie Lemens of Corder was the guest of relatives a few days last week.

J. W. Spencer was transacting business in Malta Bend Saturday.

Mrs. H. H. Briggs was called to Kansas City Sunday on account of the illness of her niece, little Roxie Ellen Finnell.

Mr. M. Kellet and family attended church services at Mt. Leonard Sunday morning.

Willie Briggs was a visitor at Marshall Saturday night.

Carl Usery and S. Black of Blackburn was calling in our midst Sunday afternoon.

L. M. Bentley, wife and son of Mt. Leonard was the Sunday guest of Anna Briggs.

NELSON NEWS.

Mrs. Price returned to her home in Napton Tuesday, having made a short visit with Mrs. L. I. Shuck.

R. O. Bagnell was in from the Elk Hill farm Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Seats has been on the sick list for several days.

News was received Wednesday morning of the death of Charlie Dotson of Longwood. For some time he had suffered from rheumatism. Mr. Dotson formerly lived in Nelson and his wife and children have the sympathy of all our people.

Mrs. Anna Potter and Mr. Harry Smith of the country were among Wednesday's visitors to town.

The ladies of the Wednesday club entertained their husbands at the home of Mrs. R. B. Thorp Wednesday evening. After refreshments a nice program was carried out.

W. E. Bell of Cassville came down from Kansas City Thursday and together with his daughter and grandson, Mrs. Frank Marr and William Marr, spent the day with Mrs. James Cordry. Mr. Bell returned to Kansas City on the afternoon train.

Miss Harriet Smith entertained the P. I. E. club Thursday evening.

Mrs. James Buntin and daughter Jennie were shopping in town Friday.

Harry Smith has returned from Kansas City, where he was present with his brother Walton during the operation which the latter underwent.

Miss Nettie Young was in town Friday and from her we learn that she will return with Mr. and Mrs. Lawson to California in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith enjoyed a visit from the former's two younger brothers last week. The young men returned to their home in Kansas City Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Tom Fowler went to Marshall Friday afternoon and returned Saturday morning.

The ladies of the Christian church served lunch at the sale given by J. J. Staples and Will Embrey Friday.

Mrs. Clyde Williams and Miss Laura Lee Vaughan of Napton drove down for a short while Saturday afternoon.

Miss Christine Nelson went to Marshall Friday afternoon and returned Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Wiley have sold their property near town to W. Elgin, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley intend leaving for California in the near future.

Rev. Snapp preached at the Methodist church Sunday morning but on account of the meeting which is being held at the Presbyterian church, he did not preach in the evening.

Mrs. Frank McAllister arrived Saturday morning and Senator F. W. McAllister Sunday morning for a visit with Mrs. Horace McAllister who has been on the sick list for some time.

Mrs. Harry Redd came up from Blackwater Sunday afternoon and visited with Mrs. L. I. Shuck for a short while. She returned late in the afternoon with her mother, Mrs. Holman, who drove up from our neighboring city.

Mrs. Irvin Williams entertained Rev. Snapp and Miss Verna McAllister Sunday at dinner.

Otho Canada left Sunday afternoon for Pueblo, Colo., where he intends remaining for some time.

Messrs. Maurice Bailey and Claude Samuels of Marshall spent Sunday in Nelson.

Miss Laura Williams left Sunday afternoon for Kansas City, where she will work in a wholesale house about ten days before buying the spring stock of hats for Nelson and Flanders.

John Zahringier came over from Pilot Grove Sunday after the car that he and Mr. Thompson purchased from Ray Lotzpeich. Lester White accompanied the former home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Petry and Mr. and Mrs. A. Petry and children spent Sunday afternoon in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jobe and little daughter Martha spent Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. Joe Wood.

Messrs. Maurine Gaudin and Murrell Blosser of Malta Bend are visiting with Mrs. C. B. Davis at her country home near here. They spent Sunday night with Miss Lavina Alexander and on Monday visited the school.

Will Nelson is on the sick list.

Rev. Sheltman is holding a meeting at the Presbyterian church.

James Harvey has been on the sick list for several days.

ARROW ROCK.

Lloyd Wilkerson and wife from west of town were visitors Monday at the home of R. E. Beasley.

W. A. Wells was transacting business in Blackburn Monday.

Fred Bierbaum and wife of the county were shopping and calling in town Monday.

Matt Schwab and family moved to Slater Wednesday, where he has a position as blacksmith for the C. & A. railroad.

Henry Morris of Boonville was a visitor the first of the week of his parents and grandfather.

Steve Craig and wife and little daughter, Dorothy, returned Tuesday from Electra, Texas, where they visited relatives.

Mr. Waltermate of Little Rock was on our streets Tuesday.

Dr. McGuire, J. P. Biggs and F. H. Brockway returned Thursday from Columbia, where they went to attend a meeting in the interest of the electric road.

Mrs. E. F. Alexander of Cooper is visiting this week with her sister, Mrs. Minerva Bingham. She celebrated her 84th birthday Thursday, February 13.

Frank Wilmarth from south of town was in town Wednesday.

J. W. Amick and Dave Green went to Slater Wednesday to take the household goods for Mr. Schwab.

Mr. Wiley, who has been sick for several days is reported some better at this writing.

Mr. Penster of the country was attending to business here Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Henry Nelmier from west of town was trading with our merchants Friday.

Mrs. T. B. Morris returned Saturday from a few days stay in Boonville with her son, Henry and family. Her little grandson, Henry Elliott, was quite sick with a cold, but was improving when Mrs. Morris left.

W. O. Burge and family of Cooper and sister, Miss Dora Burge of Boonville were shopping in town Saturday.

Clark Swinney and daughter, Miss Mary of the country were shopping and calling in town Saturday afternoon.

Tom Sites of Cooper was transacting business here Saturday.

Will Freeman and wife of Cooper were among the crowd in town Saturday.

Miss Ola Piper of near Little Rock was shopping here Saturday.

The Highway is in fine condition now and the automobiles have been taking advantage of it the last few days.

Henry McCart and wife of Cooper were shopping here Saturday afternoon and Mrs. M. Cart attended a call meeting of the cemetery association.

W. R. Hubbard and wife were dinner guests Sunday at the home of R. C. Piper near Little Rock.

Tom Sims and wife of near Blackwater were dinner guests Sunday at the home of W. S. Shemwell. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Shemwell and children, Herbert and Rachel, who will visit them a few days.

The remains of Charles Eugene, little son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lawless of Kansas City, Mo., were brought here Monday, February 17 and interred in the Arrow Rock cemetery. We extend sympathy.

CLAY CENTER.

Alex Spencer and Son's sale was well attended Tuesday and everything sold well.

Misses Mary Odell and Mary Piper were at Hardeman Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. West were guests of relatives in Marshall Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Allen were guests Wednesday night and Thursday of relatives here.

Geogrey and West sold a bunch of cattle to Mr. Al Dobbins one day last week.

Will Spencer of Shackelford moved down on the place recently occupied by Alex Spencer and son Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brown, Misses Mary Odell, Mary Piper and Messrs. Charles, Linwood, Jennings Brown and Letcher Odell attended the dance at Glen Townsend's Thursday night.

Misses Grace Craig and Ruth Piper were in this vicinity Friday afternoon.

Misses Ethel Ellis and Lucy Dowden of Hardeman were week-end guests of Mrs. C. E. Brown.

Miss Felice Brown entertained a few of her friends at a Valentine party Friday night. The following were present: Misses Mary, Julia, and Della Odell, Ruth Brown, Nora Thomas, Clara Leimkuehler, Lucile and Lorene West, Hattie Spencer, Elsie and Minnie Meyer, Messrs. Letcher Odell, Adolph Meyer, Bryan Howell, Ray Dickson, Russell Pickering, Earl Hasemeier, Fred Leimkuehler, William and Albert Buckstetter, Claud Thomas. All report a splendid time.

Dr. W. H. Black returned from Wayneburg, Penn., where he has been holding a week's evangelistic meeting at the Wayneburg college, which is his Alma mater. Mrs. Black says she has seen little of the doctor since his return as he had to go to the college soon after his arrival, but she says he reports a pleasant time in his old home.

EVENTUALLY

ITS SAFE

IN YOUR HOME

FOR LIGHTING AND COOKING

One Blaugas System in every three sold, replaces an inferior lighting system.

The other two forever dispense with the Ancient and unhealthy coal oil lamp.

A SPLENDID INVESTMENT

as necessary as the mail service, as the telephone

KEEP YOUR DISPOSITION IN REPAIR

SOUTHWESTERN BLAUGAS CO., KANSAS CITY, MO.

BLACKBURN

Frank Ross has bought a 16-horse power engine to run his machinery with. He is taking the kinks out of Elen Branch, one mile north of town on Mrs. McGrew's farm, by opening a straight ditch one half mile long. This does away with about two miles of the old creek and will make the land less liable to overflow.

Fred Flair, who has been in Colorado and Nebraska for several years, has returned and will make his home in Saline county again. He has rented a farm one mile west of Malta Bend from D. B. Robertson, known as the James Waller farm.

The Seniors and Sophomores of the Blackburn high school entertained the Juniors and Freshman in the hall of the high school building Friday evening. About fifty were present. The evening was spent playing games and listening to music. Light refreshments were served, which consisted of ice cream and cake.

H. Herndon went to Marshall Sunday and returned Monday afternoon.

Misses Annie Laurie and Ethel Belot returned from Odessa Sunday, where they had been visiting Mrs. S. Beamer.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Petering attended the funeral of the latter's sister-in-law at Concordia Sunday.

B. Blackford, Miss Ruth Bockman, Miss Lily Hasemeier and Mr. Heimer were passengers to Marshall Tuesday.

Miss Mamie Rabelman returned from a visit to Corder Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Grover Allen announce the birth of an eight and one half pound boy February 10, 1913.

The friends of James Maddox were grieved to hear of his death in New Orleans of smallpox February 7.

Mrs. T. Entekin and Mrs. F. Entekin and daughter, Nancy Jane, and Mrs. Alice Neale, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Will Hancock of Mt. Leonard.

Mrs. B. Blackford, Mrs. A. Finkel-dei, Miss Ruth Breitenstein, Mrs. Flair and Mrs. Maddox are on the sick list this week.

Miss Price of St. Louis is visiting Miss Minnie Strader.

E. Ramey shipped a car load of cattle Tuesday.

Several dogs have been killed on the streets this week; one was thought to have been mad.

B. Ashurt shipped two car loads of cattle Tuesday.

McDaniels-Mumford.

A wedding involving the names of two of Saline's old families, was solemnized at the parsonage of the Christian church by the Pastor Eld. B. T. Wharton at nine o'clock Wednesday morning, February 12, 1913.

The contracting parties were N. P. McDaniel of Miami, Mo., and Miss Minnie L. Mumford of Marshall, Mo. They were accompanied by only a few near relatives.

After a short bridal trip to Jefferson City they will make their home on a farm near Miami.

This worthy couple commence the new life with the good wishes of many friends extended to them.

Come Often! SEE THIS LIST!

Our Lace and Embroidery Sale is Still On!

- 2 & 3 qt. granite pudding pans, .10
- 16-candle power light globes, .15
- China eggs, 3 for .05
- White plates, each, .05
- White cup and saucer, .05
- Gold band cup and saucer, .10
- " " " " .15
- Headquarters for window glass.
- Best house paint, gallon . $1.90
- Jap-a-lac per qt.69
- " per pt.39
- " per 1-2 pt.23
- " per 1-4 pt.13

New spring gingham now in.

WEST SIDE SQUARE, ED. F. WEST, MARSHALL, MISSOURI.